"Maryland Field Hockey's Well-Rounded Tradition is a sense of personal pride to carry on a tradition of success."
Head Coach Missy Meharg

On the Cover: Maryland Field Hockey's Well-Rounded Tradition. It's a blend of academic and athletic excellence that is highlighted with two National Championships, eight NCAA Tournaments appearances, 28 All-Americans and 33 Academic All-Americans.

The cover features Olympian Katie Kauffman in action, Christine DeBow and Sarah Rosenwinkel taking a break between classes on the mall, senior Tricia Burdt leading the Terrapins and head coach Missy Meharg guiding the squad--all focused on the goal of winning the 1996 National Championship.

1996 PREVIEW

The 1996 Terrapins are ready for the 1996 season with the leadership of captains Tricia Burdt and Christine DeBow.

A Well-Rounded Tradition. That's what the University of Maryland Field Hockey Program has established in its 22 seasons of competition. Maryland is the home of 28 All-Americans and 33 Terrapins have received Academic All-America honors in the six years of selections. The school's record boasts a winning percentage of 65 percent, eight NCAA Tournament appearances and two national titles. It's a tradition the 1996 squad plans on continuing.

This year's team is looking to go one better, after finishing 1995 as runner-up to the national championship. Missy Meharg earned ACC Coach of the Year honors and led her 1995 squad to a 19-5 record before the season ended one game short of the ultimate prize in the national championship game.

But 1996 welcomes a well-seasoned squad with 10 of 11 starters returning from last season. This year's team has a wealth of experience and adds Olympic back Katie Kauffman and All-Big Ten defender Carolyn Schwarz as well as a group of talented freshmen.

The forward position will be led by the natural speed and athleticism of All-American Sarah Rosenwinkel. Accompanying her will be the patience and experienced goal-scoring of Nadine Bennett, Megan Callahan and Kasey Jo Heiser.

The midfielders will control the tempo to instill an attacking, tenacious, unrelenting force to make goal-scoring a team expectation. A pair of outstanding runners with incredible skills and shooting desire, All-America Christine DeBow and ACC MVP Lynsey McVicker, will generate speed in the transition game from endline to endline. Sophomore Jen Pratt will fill in the midfield position with her excellent ability to feed the ball to the frontline.

The Terrapin defense is all about maturity, poise and talent. The sides will be controlled by the exceptional marking abilities of Sara Salam and Sara Forbes, while All-Americans Tricia Burdt and Katie Kauffman will hold the center defense. Alana Eliwatt returns to the goal after a great season as the starter in 1995.

The game of field hockey has changed for this fall with the offsides penalty now eliminated. This change will increase scoring, the space on the field and the overall intensity—an exciting prospect for the Terrapins. With the new rule and the competitiveness of the schedule, Maryland's key to success will be the depth of the squad, keeping fresh players on the field at all times. Sophomore Ellen Wolf and University of Michigan transfer Carolyn Schwarz have the experience to challenge for starting positions and are keys to the depth found in the Terrapin roster.

High speed, fast pace and the Terps' run & gun style will be the goal of this team. All field players will be attackers and defenders equally. Maryland has the talent, the athletes and the attitude to have fun and win!

Head coach Missy Meharg and captain Katie Kauffman bring their Olympic experience to this year's squad.

GO TERPS!

THE STAFF

MISSY MEHARG
Head Coach

A Well-Rounded Tradition. That's what Missy Meharg has established for the University of Maryland Field Hockey program.

In her eight years in College Park, Meharg has coached the Terrapins to every accolade possible. From the ACC championship in 1992 to the NCAA title in 1993, Maryland has been successful on the field. Meharg's squads have compiled an 115-49-9 record and six NCAA appearances without a losing season.

Meharg expects excellence of her student-athletes both on and off the field. She has coached her players to 22 All-America selections, while Terrapins have received Academic All-America honors 33 times since the award began six years ago.

Meharg was the assistant coach for the 1996 U.S. Olympic Team in Atlanta that featured Terrapin senior Katie Kauffman and fell just shy of a medal. Meharg has been the assistant coach for the U.S. National Team since 1994, guiding the team to a bronze medal at the 1994 World Cup (in Ireland) and a silver medal at the 1995 Pan-American Games (in Argentina).

In 1991 and 1993, Meharg was selected as the NCAA Division I Coach of the Year. In addition, she was Mid-Atlantic Coach of the Year five times and Atlantic Coast Conference Coach of the Year in 1992 and 1995.

In 1995 Meharg served as head coach of the United States Under-21 team which competed in Spain. Four current Terrapin players (Katie Kauffman, Christine DeBow, Tricia Burdt and Carolyn Schwarz) were all members of that team.

Meharg has completed the primary International Coaching Certification Coursework which is organized and administered by the International Hockey Federation (FIH).

A 1985 graduate of the University of Delaware, Meharg's playing career was as prolific as her current coaching career. The two-time All-American in both field hockey and lacrosse competed in the U.S. Olympic Festival five times. In 1987, she was an alternate on the Pan-American team in Indianapolis and was an alternate on the 1988 Olympic team in Seoul. Meharg came out of retirement to start in the 1991 Pan-American team in Cuba and capped off her playing career as a member of the 1991 Olympic qualifying team for the 1992 Games in Barcelona.

Meharg earned a bachelor's degree in physical education from Delaware. She continued her education at Maryland where she was the graduate assistant coach to the Terrapins' only other coach Sue Tyler. Meharg earned a master's degree in sports psychology in 1989.

Q & A WITH MEHARG

What are your goals as the coach?

My goal is to create a high performance environment around each hockey student-athlete. I want to guide the players individually and collectively view towards a positive experience. Keeping in constant awareness of the increasing pressures of being an NCAA Division I student-athlete, it is critical to listen to them to ensure that we maintain our grades and win games while having fun.

What are your goals for the 1996 team?

To continue our Terrapin tradition of winning by constant committment to staying in the moment. With so much natural athleticism and raw speed on the squad, we envision creating the fastest, most explosive team, producing a style of hockey that has never been seen in the NCAA. More objectively, we want to play to our potential—which is to play in the championship games of both the ACC and NCAA Tournaments.

What are your feelings on this team? Their personality? Their aspirations?

They are a genuinely fun group. They don't let being student-athletes in College Park rule their existence. They are a respectful, committed and intelligent team and understand the time management skills it takes to maintain high marks in the classroom while competing at the top level.

They aspire to keep the tradition of Terrapin hockey alive with a passion for fun in the process.

Why would you choose Maryland if you were a student-athlete?

From what I hear from the athletes, it comes down to freedom. It seems as if the environment is intellectual, diverse, open and very life like. Academically, Maryland has top colleges in Business, Engineering, Journalism, Architecture, Biology and Education. There is complete equity which breeds self-esteem.

The athletic department complies with equity for our female athletes with a genuine interest, not because it's the law. The members of the department enjoy our game and attend consistently.

How would you characterize your coaching style?

Your style can depend on the group you are working with. What is comfortable for me is more of a non-authoritarian approach to instill problem solving and self-reliance in the players through hockey. A lot of our drills are built around this idea of reacting to the situation and everyone has a role. When the team is in shape, it works great. I guess I have become a master student of the game at different levels, but honestly, the collegiate environment is so positive. Enthusiasm and a consistent positive attitude are the ingredients!

How has your Friends of Maryland Field Hockey group become a part of your program?

They were originally developed in 1991, when we organized a trip to Holland. It went so well that the parents, alumni, friends and supporters wanted to stay in touch. They receive schedules, newsletters, information and it has really evolved into a great group. They contribute yearly through a goal-athon which is organized through the hockey staff.

How does your staff contribute to your winning record?

I believe that the coaching personnel are as important as the athletes you chose. I spend a lot of time researching and interviewing potential assistants before they come here. We have had Christy Morgan (James Madison), Missy Sanders (Virginia), Andrea Wieland (Iowa) and John O'Haire (Michigan) to name a few. The present staff is exceptional.

Michele Murphy was an All-American goalie at Penn State and a U.S. squad player. In my absences with the U.S. Olympic team, she has managed the program. Steve Simpson brings top level coaching and officiating knowledge and a deep-seeded passion for the game.

"I believe in self-accountability in the classroom and on the field. We are committed to hard work, while keeping it fun. Focus on the now, explore every possibility and take advantage of every opportunity."

THE STAFF

MICHELE MURPHY
Assistant Coach

Michele Murphy enters her fourth season as an assistant for the Terrapin program.

A 1992 graduate of Penn State University, Murphy played goalkeeper for the Nittany Lions' field hockey team from 1988 to 1991. Under her leadership, Penn State advanced to the national semifinals in 1990 and 1991, while Murphy earned NCAA All-Tournament team honors as a senior.

In addition to setting the Nittany Lions' record for career shutouts (39.5), Murphy was a two-time Academic All-America (1990-second team, 1991-first team). A National Team member in December 1991, Murphy suffered a career-ending broken leg. She began her coaching career as a student assistant for Penn State in 1992.

In 1993, Murphy moved to College Park as an assistant coach responsible for goalkeepers as well as coordinating the defensive skills and techniques training of the team. She coached Irene Horvat to back-to-back All-America seasons in the goal as the Terrapins claimed the National Title in Murphy's first season at Maryland.

Off the field, Murphy serves as the academic proctor for the Start Fast program at Maryland (a tutoring program for students).

Outside of Maryland, Murphy has been the head goalie coach for the Futures Program the past four years. In 1995, she was the goalkeepers' coach for the United States' Under-21 Team at the 1995 Olympic Festival in Boulder, Colorado.

Murphy earned a bachelor's degree in speech communications from Penn State University. She is working on a master's degree in speech and language pathology at the University of District of Columbia. Michele and her husband, Bill, were married June 24, 1995.

STEVE SIMPSON
Assistant Coach

Steve Simpson begins his second season as an assistant coach with the Maryland program.

The Terrapin alumnus has extensive experience playing, coaching and officiating field hockey since arriving in the United States from England in 1977.

Simpson was a member of the Men's Junior National Team from 1977-80, becoming an alternate for the National Team in 1981. During his career, Simpson competed in four Olympic Festivals (1979, 1981, 1982, 1983).

While he no longer plays competitively, Simpson remains involved with field hockey as an official and a coach.

In 1985, Simpson became an umpire for the international organization (FIH). He has officiated over 140 games involving national teams and has toured with the Men's National Team numerous times. Simpson traveled to India in February to umpire the India Gandhi Invitational Hockey Tournament where he officiated the finals between India and Korea.

As a coach, Simpson is extensively involved with the Future's Program. He coaches the Chesapeake Under-18 Team and is the Coaching Director of the Chesapeake Region (Maryland, Delaware and the District of Columbia). In addition, Simpson coaches the Washington Wolves, a club team that trains to play in the Indoor National Tournament as well as in outdoor tournaments against adult club teams. He has been selected to participate in the Olympic Solidarity Coaching Course in California in May.

Simpson earned a bachelor's degree in general studies from Maryland in 1988. He is single and resides in Chevy Chase, Md.

OTTO STEFFERS
Volunteer Assistant Coach

Otto Steffers joins the Terrapin staff this season as a volunteer assistant.

Steffers began playing hockey as a child growing up in The Netherlands. He moved to the United States at the age of 15 where he further developed his ability. Steffers was on the U.S. Junior National Team from 1988-1992. He competed in each Olympic Festival from 1989-1995, earning three gold medals, a silver and a bronze. A member of the U.S. National Team since 1990, Steffers represented the United States in the 1996 Olympic Games in Atlanta.

He attended Thomas McKean High School in Wilmington, Delaware, before graduating from William Palmer High School in Colorado Springs, Colo. He attended Goldey Beacom College before returning to The Netherlands to play one year of second division hockey.

SUPPORT STAFF

Academic Support

Heather Lowe serves as the academic advisor to the field hockey team.

There is an insistence in the University of Maryland Athletics and in the field hockey program that each student-athlete gets a degree in a career field that will enhance her life after College Park. The insistence is underlined by Coach Missy Meharg and her staff, by the athletic administration and by the Academic Support Unit of the Department of Athletics.

A successful student almost always equates to a successful athlete. The commitment to academic excellence requires discipline, dedication and motivation. These are the same characteristics needed for an athlete to excel on the field or court.

Toward the goal of a successful academic experience for each student-athlete, the athletic department created the Academic Support Unit. Each ASU staff member is responsible for working with specific sports, counseling each student-athlete individually.

The department operates an ever-expanding computer room and an extensive library of the books an athlete will need through his academic career.

ASU organizes over 100 tutors from all academic disciplines. Student-athletes can receive specialized one-on-one training in any class by a qualified tutor.

The academic support unit provides a comprehensive and balanced program for all student-athletes at the University of Maryland.

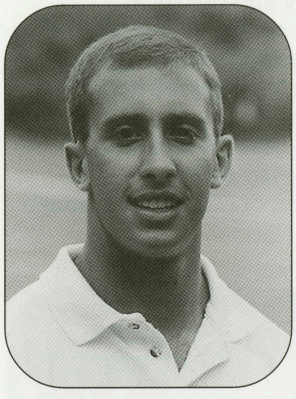
Heather Lowe oversees the academic progress of the field hockey team. She joined the Maryland staff last winter after serving as a career advisor at Florida State University.

Lowe received a bachelor's degree from Syracuse University before earning a master's of education from the University of Louisville. She was a graduate assistant in the office of academic services for athletics.

Towards A Student-Athlete's Development, ASU Provides . . .

*Personal academic assessment
*Academic advising and counseling
*Supervised study
*Learning and study skills programs
*Computer training and usage
*Group and individual tutoring
*Career mentoring
*Summer internships

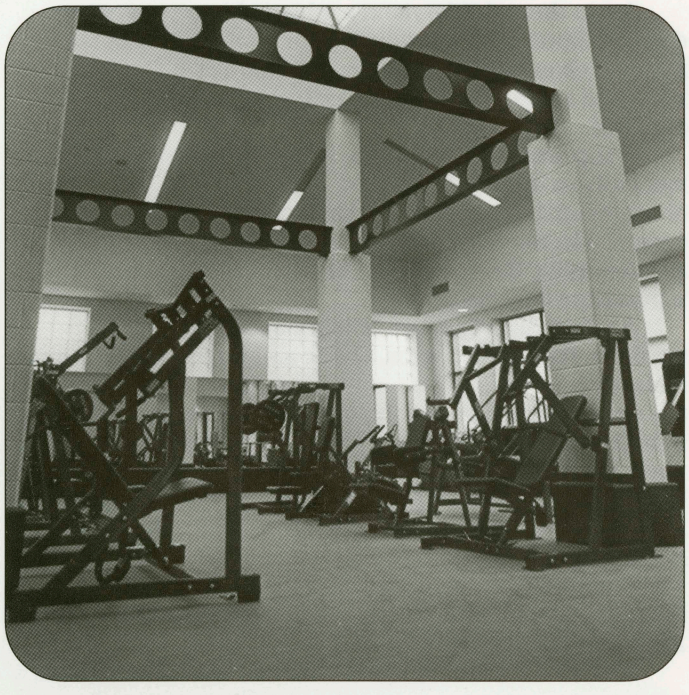
Strength & Conditioning



Barry Kagan prepares the field hockey team to step on the field in the best possible condition.

Before the field hockey team can compete at its finest, the strength and conditioning staff prepares the athletes for game day. Proper training in the offseason leads to top performances by individuals and winning records for the team as a whole. The Terrapins utilize the most innovative equipment in strength training with access to a state-of-the-art weight room. This new technology ensures that the athletes are in prime condition to enter competition.

Barry Kagan works closely with the field hockey team to guarantee a successful program. Kagan began working with Maryland athletic teams over three years while still a student in College Park. He earned a bachelor's degree in kinesiological sciences in December 1995 after completing a thesis in which he compared 40-yard sprint times among female collegiate athletes. Kagan was also a Terrapin cheerleader during his collegiate career.



Maryland's facilities are among the most innovative and feature state-of-the-art equipment.

UNIVERSITY OF MARYLAND

Picture a university so comprehensive that if offers degrees in 98 disciplines, so technologically advanced that it manages specially-designed research facilities not found on any other campus in the country and boasts a telecommunications system which serves as a model for universities worldwide. And, at the same time, it is a university concerned enough to include special housing matched to student interests and to ensure that half of all undergraduate classes have fewer then 30 students.

That's a snapshot of the University of Maryland at College Park, the flagship institution of Maryland's system of higher education.

A trip through Maryland's athletic history reveals a deep tradition of competitiveness and of years that feature national championships, many Atlantic Coast Conference titles and some of the game's richest characters in athletics.

A trip across College Park reveals a university changed markedly in the 1990s. Almost a half-billion dollars worth of construction has recently taken place or is on-going. A campus already known for its beauty is getting better. Academically, College Park's peers are the best public universities in America.

A trip across the state of Maryland reveals deep tradition, too. Washington, D.C.'s monuments and national historic treasures are just miles away, the building housing the nation's archives is on campus. Historic sites in Baltimore have Edgar Allan Poe and Babe Ruth's names on them, and Annapolis has witnessed much of the nation's history.

Baltimore's Inner Harbor and Annapolis' waterways lead into the Chesapeake Bay, with room for thousands of sailboats. There is an ocean on the state's eastern shore; its western boundaries are ringed by the Blue Ridge and Allegheny mountains.

So take a trip to College Park for a field hockey game, a trip to see a campus reaching for excellence or maybe even a trip just to see how beautiful the state is that bears our name.

Academic Stature: One of only 30 public research universities in the prestigious 58-member Association of American Universities; among fewer than 10 percent of universities invited to join Phi Beta Kappa.

Baccalaureate Choices: Degrees offered in 98 disciplines; pre-professional programs in dental hygiene, dentistry, law, medical technology, medicine, nursing, optometry, osteopathic medicine, pharmacy, physical therapy and pediatric medicine.

Dramatic Moments: Find them in the 1,350 seat Tawes Theater, the stage for major theatrical productions and special events.

Faculty Facts: Full-time, 1,998; part-time 544; student/faculty ratio, 14/1.

Getting There: The MARC train offers public transportation from College Park to Baltimore's Camden Station, next to Orioles Park at Camden Yards and near the Inner Harbor. The highly efficient Metro system puts the Suburban Maryland, District of Columbia and Northern Virginia areas a rapid transit system ride away from College Park.

Ideas: More than 100 active patent disclosures by university inventors are managed by the Office of Technology Liaison.

Journalist's Pick: The College of Journalism was selected as one of two sites in the U.S. for the Hubert H. Humphrey Fellowship Program, and named one of the nations' top communications programs by the Gannett Center for Media Studies.

Library Holdings: Largest academic research library system in Washington metropolitan area. There are 2.8 million volumes in libraries and 4.6 million items on microfilm.

Nationally Noted: A dozen academic departments and programs at College Park are placed in top 10 among U.S. public universities by the National Academy of Sciences.

Neighbors: Campus neighbors include the Library of Congress, the Smithsonian Institutions, the National Institutes of Health, the National Aeronautics and Space Administration (NASA), the National Science Foundation and the U.S. Department of Agriculture's Agricultural Research Center. On campus is National Archives II.

On the Drawing Board: $36 million campus recreation center and $100 million Center for Performing Arts will soon enhance the campus.

U.S. News and World Report* Finds: The Department of Computer Science ranks 12th in the nation, beating three Ivy League schools, and the Department of Physics is 13th best, ahead of UCLA and Pennsylvania among others. The College of Business and Management is considered 14th in student selectivity.

Value Added: College Park is included in the Guide to 101 of the Best Values in Colleges and Universities, published annually by the Center for College Enrollment Studies.
